Practical Tips For Evangelism

From finding your one to presenting the gospel, use these tips to get started.

1. Find Your One

Not sure how to answer the question, “Who’s your one?” yet? Here are a few suggestions to help.

- Family: Who could love your family members more than you do?
- Close friends: Who do you want to tell when you have news (good or bad)?
- Neighbor: Who lives right next door to you?
- Coworkers: Who works across from you, or who do you run into in the break room?
- Cashier or server: Who are the people you see at your regular shopping and dining spots?
- Classmate: Who do you see in class, the library or lab?
- Teammate: Who plays in the same league as you?
- Online friend: With whom do you engage on social media?
- Fellow parent: Who are the parents of your child’s friends?
- Workout buddy: With whom do you go to the gym or run?

2. Serve Your One

Once you’ve identified your one, let them know you care through acts of service.

- Take them out for a cup of coffee.
- Write a note of encouragement.
- Hand out notes of encouragement to those who serve you at grocery stores, restaurants, etc., letting them know they are prayed for and loved by Jesus.

- Send a text asking how you can pray for them.
- Drop off a gift card for your One at their door and leave them a hand-written note explaining why you did it.
- Type up a note saying you’re offering to help your neighbors in any way they need. Leave it on neighbors’ mailboxes or on their doors. Offer to do yard work, run errands, etc. Ask for prayer requests. Put contact information on the note.
- Any time the Lord puts your One on your mind, take the time to pray for them, then send them a text or DM them to let them know you have been praying for them and ask how they are doing.

3. Find Your One

Use these simple questions and conversation starters to lead the way to a gospel conversation with your one.

- Can I ask you a question that’s really important to me? Has anyone ever told you that God loves you and sent His son Jesus to die for you?
- Do you have any spiritual beliefs?
- How can I pray for you?
- Are you a religious person?
- Do you have a church that you attend?
- Do you believe in God? What do you believe about Him?
- When is the last time someone told you that God loves you?
- Did you grow up in church? What were you taught about God growing up? Do you still believe that?
- What do you think the solution to (insert recent troubling news event) is?
- Can I share my story with you briefly? Or, can I tell you about the best thing that ever happened to me?
- What do you think it takes to go to Heaven?
- How’s your day going? Listen to how they respond and let them know you will be praying for them. Go back and see them again and let them know you’ve been praying for them and follow up on how they are doing. Then ask if they have any spiritual beliefs.
- Share your testimony on social media. Then, copy the link to the post and text it to your one saying, “I just shared my story on social media. Would you watch it and let me know what you think?”
- Suggest a Christian movie for you and your One to watch and discuss.
- Relate with your One’s struggle as they share. Then let them know how Jesus was your only hope in your time of struggle.

DOING HIS WORK at First Baptist

There are so many way you can Do His Work. Below are both Ministries and Missions opportunities where you can find places to use your gift and abilities to serve others. Although the two seem similar, there are differences in ministries and missions.

Missions are the DO opportunities with the specific goal to proclaim the Gospel to those who are unchurched. Many of these functions happen outside the church, meeting direct personal needs for someone or some group in order to develop relationships which make it possible to evangelize and help others to Commit their lives to Christ.

Ministries are typically the work of the church - opportunities of service that keep the church functioning. These provide very important services for people who are on campus or visiting. These DO opportunities are necessary for the church to function through worship, administration, programming, and teaching.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS

Identifying the tools God has given you

S.H.A.P.E. TEST

Helping You Discover God's Purpose in Life

Determining why God put you here is critical to your ability to serve Him.

Just as a member of a sports team must identify his/her skills to best contribute to the success of the team, God has entrusted you with spiritual skills to assist in the advancement of His Kingdom.

There are a few trusted methods to help you determine your gifts, but one that we recommend is the S.H.A.P.E. Test.

This assessment generally takes up to an hour to complete, but has been known to be incredibly accurate in helping you determine your gifts. Here are a few sample questions:

S.H.A.P.E. stands for:

- Spiritual Gifts
- Heart
- Abilities
- Personality
- Experiences

By answering a series of questions, this assessment will help you see exactly how God has gifted you for service.

Though you can certainly complete this assessment by other means, the process is automated and made easy for you at the website, www.freeshapetest.com.
(For best results, it is recommended that you complete this survey on a computer, not on a phone.)

Following the assessment, you can choose to have your results emailed to yourself, a small group teacher or minister, or anyone you'd like to share your results with for future discussion. Take advantage of this online resource and discover your spiritual shape today!
