The Conservatory is more than a highly regarded School of Music and Fine Arts program. It is a ministry and outreach to our community! With more than 200 students, we are looking for individuals who are gifted in the arts and professionally qualified to join our teaching staff. We believe you will find the compensation competitive and the benefits of working in this setting extremely rewarding.

Interested teachers should submit a resume and cover letter to Barbara Joseph, Conservatory Director, at info@fbctconservatory.org
